CITY CLERK

What Department or bureau is Bill originating from? Where did the initiative for the bill originate?

This Bill originated in Health. LVHN has made a $10,000 contribution available to cover the purchase of automatic defibrillators and CPR training materials in exchange for health staff participating in a task force on geriatric workforce education.

Summary and Facts of the Bill

This allocation will be used to purchase three AEDS needed by the city as well as educational materials needed for staff and citizen CPR classes.

Purpose –

The Bill allows the City to have the equipment necessary to teach additional CPR classes and to hopefully save lives.

000-09-0908-0001-46- $1080
Paramedic or trainer hours for instruction

000-09-0908-0001-68 – $841
Manuals, mouth pieces, instructional video, supplies

000-09-0908-0001-72 - $8079
Automatic external defibrillators, pads, mannequins

Financial Impact

There is no financial impact other than cost savings to the city since several AEDs are reaching their shelf life.

Funding Sources
Lehigh Valley Health Network

These funds must be spent by December 31, 2016.

Why should Council unanimously support this bill?
This bill provides funds to assist citizens and staff in learning to save lives.
