Heather Browne, Marketing Director for Every Day Life will be presenting her program for Seniors with us. Heather Browne is wife to our State Senator Pat Browne. Every Day Life is a program to help seniors stay at home and continue being part of the neighborhood they have so long lived in. It sounds like an exciting and informative talk.

Also we will have Captain Mould so we can share with him our concerns for our neighborhoods and our homes. Come meet him and share your concerns

Primary Election
Time is upon Us Register to vote please. I have a sign I love of a little child saying your vote is my voice. If you Vote don't forget to get out and Vote if you don't register at our meetings to do so!

Spring is here a time for fresh air and new beginnings, Easter, Mother's Day Memorial Day, and Primary Day are not far ahead..

Primary Season is upon us once more in a few short weeks we go to the polls to choose the people we want to run in November.

college fund is important but having the right people in elected office that will truly represent your view your opinion, your family values is just as important.

Time for spring Cleaning and out with the old things we don't need. Check with recycling to know what days you can put out what and how to put them out. recycle bins, get them a green one for plastic and tin and a blue one for newspapers. If you need bins call recycling. At 610-437-7770 Recycle IT'S THE LAW!

MY vote doesn't matter you may say. Well it does matter it is what our boys are fighting for in Iraq and around the world for your right to vote. Don't let them fight in vain for your freedom. Support the troops get out to vote.

IT is your most important right to vote, to be heard your vote counts it is what can stem the tides of the economy and turn the pages of history from depressing to prosperous if we but vote for whom and what we believe in and that's Register to vote it is your Constitutional right to vote. Your vote is your child's voice for their future. Saving for their
