SNOW SHOVELING HELP

Two agencies may be able to offer help with snow shoveling for people whose age or disability may prevent them from shoveling their sidewalks. Each program can handle only as many assignments as there are workers able to cover.

1) Lehigh County Information (ph - 610-382-3200) has application forms for a program run through Lehigh County Juvenile Probation. Applicants must be age 65 or disabled, a resident of Allentown with an income of less than $15,000. They will be available weekdays but not on weekends.

2) Lehigh County Senior Center, now re-named Lehigh Valley Active Life, (ph - 610-437-3700), has a program using adult and youth volunteers. Applicants must be age 65 or disabled, own their home, and have no one else who could shovel for them. Tipping is accepted.

LANA's December Holiday Lunch

On Saturday December 14 LANA held our annual holiday luncheon at Villa Rosa, a newly reopened Italian restaurant at 19th and Hamilton Streets. 29 people came out, we enjoyed the food and the wine, and we each had a nice sharing - We like this neighborhood. I especially appreciated what Don Stone spoke about how this neighborhood is coming together

It was a delight to have CeCe Gerlach from our School Board join us; also Rene Haines from the Library with her family.

When we came there was just a dusting of snow; on leaving the snow was beginning to cover cars and ground - it was time to go home.

Ideas for 2014

We welcome ideas for next year's meetings and projects. Call Nick Butterfield, at 610-770-1751 or Butterfn@aol.com
