May Meeting Highlights

Mary Lou Parry ran the meeting. The Honorable Douglas G. Reichley, Judge of Lehigh County Court of Common Pleas joined us to talk about his work and answer questions. Tom Mulligan reported that juveniles who were cutting school were caught. He also reminded us to be aware of people calling promising money and others at the door claiming to be PPL employees. When an owner called PPL to check, the “employees” disappeared. Mary and Bill Parry updated us on the city’s Swimming Towards the Future Study. The pool at Cedar Beach will be moved closer to Hamilton Street and out of the flood plain. Members requested a speaker about the tax reassessment at a future meeting. There was a question about progress in the 19th Street improvements including the fence around the fairground.

Crime Reports

Our Community Watch receives a crime report of activity in our area from the Allentown Police Department. The reports give the date, location, and type of incident. Nuisance crimes like carrying open alcohol or underage drinking do not appear on this list. Neighbors have requested that this information be included in the newsletter. The location will be given by block only.

Please note that we’re catching up in our crime reporting. The length of this list does not indicate an uptick in crimes in our area.

Tip for calling 9-1-1

If you hear an intruder in your home, stay where you are and call 9-1-1. You don't have to say anything, just leave the line open and don't hang up. This works with land lines and cell phones alike.

I will prepare resumes for returning military personnel
from Iraq and Afghanistan free
