
Calling All Elves!

The City of Allentown is inviting Elves of all ages to join in its Holiday Tree Lighting Ceremony on Thursday, December 3rd.

Prizes will be awarded for Elves donning the best costumes in various age categories (infants & toddlers, school age and adults).

All Elves are invited to join in the first annual "Allentown Elf Parade." Elves participating in the parade must be lined up in the Farr Lot (located on 8th Street between Linden and Hamilton) no later than 5:30pm.

Prior to gathering for parade, Elves' cheeks can be painted rosy and free jingle bells will be handed out in the 800 Block of Hamilton Street. This is the perfect opportunity for scout troops, families and other groups to spread holiday cheer - please join in the festive fun!

The Holiday Tree Lighting Ceremony will fill the 800 Block of Hamilton Street with activity from 4-7pm. Some of the features include free horse drawn carriage rides, musical performances and ice carving demonstrations. Refreshments and handmade gifts will be for sale.
